

FOREIGN.

The French Bombard Foo Chow—Only Meagre Details of the Battle.

The Chinese Claimed to Have Been Defeated With Heavy Losses.

The Cholera Still Spreading—It Reaches England by Ship.

Other Old World Happenings and Stories of Wreck and Disaster.

England.

THE WAR BEGINS.

London, August 23.—A dispatch from Shanghai this morning says Admiral Courbet has announced his intention of bombarding the arsenal at Foo Chow to-day. The French consul in this city has lowered his flag. Advice from Peking of yesterday state that Gens. Yuan and Quangs have received imperial orders to march their forces into Tongku. A dispatch to the Times which left Foo Chow at 2:15 p. m. to-day says that hostilities began this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE CHINESE SIDE.

A Chinese official telegram states the French are desirous of a settlement. This message was sent, however, before it was announced the French began firing on Foo Chow at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CONSIDERING.

The Merchants and Underwriters of London, held a meeting to-day to consider the bearing of the Franco-Chinese conflict on neutrals as Prime Minister Ferry had announced that the bombardment of Keelung would not create a state of war but simply a means of furthering the French negotiations with China.

WHAT WILL BE THE EFFECT?

The inquiry is raised in a meeting as to whether Admiral Courbet shall admit English or German vessels loaded with arms into Foo Chow. One neutral vessel, it is now stated, was en route to that port with a cargo of dynamite ordered by the viceroy. The meeting resolved to urge Earl Granville, secretary of foreign affairs, to press France to define her intention in regard to neutrals.

ORDERED TO MAKE REPAIRS.

A Times dispatch from Foo Chow at seven o'clock this morning says at nine o'clock last night Admiral Courbet officially announced he had received orders from Paris to make repairs. The British vice consul and doctor left their anchorage last night and reached the English gunboats at midnight. There is a report that Li Fong Pao is instructed by imperial decree to settle the dispute on the best terms possible.

BOMBARDED.

The exchange telegraph company on authority of the Chinese embassy states Foo Chow was bombarded by the French this morning.

THE FRENCH VICTORIOUS.

A Shanghai dispatch at six this evening says: It is reported that the French captured the Chinese fleet at Foo Chow. Two French boats were sunk. A telegram from Peking announces that Li Hung is instructed to make pacific advances.

ANOTHER CHOLERA STEAMER ARRIVES.

The steamer Baronesmore from the Mediterranean is at anchor in Laugh Fogle, flying a yellow flag. It is feared cholera is on board.

THEATRICAL.

Henry Abbey has re-engaged Mrs. Langtry for the London season which will open in January. She will appear in a new French play at the Avenue theatre.

Henry Irving closes his present season at the Lyceum theatre Thursday next. Miss Mary Anderson will open there September 6th.

France.

NO NEWS.

Paris, France, August 23.—The government has received no news from Foo Chow to-day. Li Fong Pao the Chinese minister, has not yet left Paris. Le Martin and Le Francis, assert that Tsyung, Li Yamen telegraphed him not to leave France.

NO RESTRICTIONS TO NEUTRALS.

Paris, August 23.—It is semi-officially stated that inasmuch as France has not declared war, neutrals going to China will not be subjected to the restrictions which would be imposed on account of a war.

POSTPONED HIS DEPARTURE.

It is reported Li Fong Pao has received a dispatch of two hundred words from his government, in consequence of which he has postponed his departure from Paris. Le Paris believes the object of the dispatch was to sound Li Fong Pao concerning the chance for submitting the quarrel to arbitration.

BUT LEFT ALL THE SAME.

Li Fong Pao left Paris at 8 o'clock this evening.

WRECKED.

Aden, August 23.—The French Transport Aveyron was wrecked off Cape Goadafu. Two hundred and eighty passengers, officers and crew reached Aden. Three hundred remained at Goadafu.

Canada.

DON'T WANT THEM.

Ottawa, August 23.—Sir John A. MacDonald, referring to Mr. Frewen's Wyoming cattle scheme, expresses unqualified condemnation of the project as detrimental to the best interests of the dominion and fraught with the greatest danger to Canadian farmers and cattle raisers. He says it should be opposed in toto.

YELLOW FEVER.

Havana, August 23.—Seventeen deaths from yellow fever the past week.

Egypt.

THE NILE RISING.

Assouan, August 23.—The Nile continues to rise. Eight steamers will ascend the river to the first cataract to-day. Col. Calhoun will go to Donkela. It is reported that the followers of El Mahdi are dying at the rate of three a day from some intestinal disease.

Ireland.

AFRAID TO BURY HIM.

Dublin, August 23.—Slowgway who landed at Waterford, Ireland, from the steamship Orangemore, from Liverpool for Baltimore and taken to the infirmary ill, with what was reported to be Asiatic cholera has died. No one can be induced to bury the corpse, although a reward is offered.

Cholera.

IN FRANCE.

Paris, August 23.—Four deaths from cholera at Toulon last night, two at Marseilles. The government intends to break up camp near Toulon and distribute the troops among the other stations owing to the appearance of cholera at Geneva. Dr. Castello advises the inspection of travellers at Laplane the first railway station on the frontier.

DEATHS IN ITALY.

Rome, August 23.—The daily bulletin of the cholera in Italy is as follows: Borgomoso, 4 deaths and 13 fresh cases. Campobasso, 4 deaths and 8 fresh cases. Cuneo, 2 deaths and 13 fresh cases. Genoa, no deaths, 15 fresh cases. Carrara, 4 deaths and 5 fresh cases. Naples, no deaths and 1 fresh case. Parma, no deaths, 1 fresh case. Turin, 2 deaths, no fresh cases. Maurezo, 3 deaths and 4 fresh cases.

DEATHS IN FRANCE.

Marseilles, August 23.—The report of ravages of cholera in the southern departments of France for the past twenty-four hours are as follows: Hérault 9 deaths. Gard 2 deaths. And 12 deaths.

AT TOULON.

Toulon, August 23.—Three deaths from cholera in town to-day, and one death in the suburbs. Seven patients were admitted to the hospital, and forty-eight are now under treatment. The deaths followed attack with great rapidity. This new feature of the epidemic creates great alarm, as it indicates great virulence. Eight deaths from cholera are reported in the department of the Pyrenees Oriental to-day.

RINDERPEST AT ODESSA.

Odessa, August 23.—Thirteen peasants in the village of Ondrejka, near this city, were attacked with symptoms similar to those of the rinderpest. Two patients died. The troops have formed a cordon around the village.

Through an Elevator.

Pittsburg, Pa., August 23.—This afternoon the elevator at P. Kiel & Sons' grain warehouse gave way and two workmen named Theo. Tensing and Peter Knuff, were precipitated from the third floor to the cellar, a distance of one hundred feet. Both were fatally injured.

WASHINGTON WAIFS.

DEPARTMENT DOINGS.

Washington, D. C., August 23.—Assistant Secretary of the Interior Joslin has been requested by a number of cattle men on the Oklahoma lands in the Indian territory to remain till they can remove their stock without loss to themselves. The order to the army to remove all persons on the lands in violation of law, the assistant secretary says he carried out. He further says the cattle men went into the territory without permission and must suffer the consequences. It is understood at the treasury department that the proposed call for $10,000,000 of bonds will be issued the early part of next week. The total reserve in the treasury to-day is $146,500,000. The gold reserve which has been steadily increasing the past week is to-day about $120,000,000.

Indications.

Washington, August 23.—Missouri valley: Generally fair weather, variable winds becoming southerly, nearly stationary temperature. Missouri Valley: fair weather, followed by increasing cloudiness, local rain and brisk southerly winds, higher temperature, lower barometer. For Monday, warmer, generally fair weather. Indications for lake regions and Ohio Valley, warmer. Partly cloudy weather and local rains for Mississippi and Missouri Valleys.

Hay Fever.

For Hay Fever I recommend Ely's Cream Balm. It entirely relieved me from the first application; have been a sufferer for ten years. Going from home and neglecting to take the remedy, I had an attack; after returning I immediately resorted to it, and found instant relief. I believe had I begun its use earlier, I should not have been troubled.—J. COLLYER, Clerk, 118 Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J. Easily applied.

One and one half bottles of Ely's Cream Balm, entirely cured me of Hay Fever of ten years standing. Have had no trace of it for two years.—ALBERT A. PERRY, Smithboro, N. Y.

I recommend to those suffering (as I have with Hay Fever), Ely's Cream Balm. I have tried nearly all the remedies, and give this a decided preference over them all. It has given me immediate relief.—C. T. STEPHENS, Hardware Merchant, Ithaca, N. Y. Fifty cents.

Oysters, Oysters, Oysters.

New York counts, first of the season, at Restaurant of Hotel Kaiser. 82 d

Whisky may be right in its place, but the place for it is not in the stomach of a young man contemplating matrimony, and the girl who takes such a young man, makes a fool of herself, and will regret it as long as she lives. There are sober boys enough for all the girls and there is no need of marrying a drunkard, and the girl who does so against the advice of her mother, will deserve the unhappiness she married.

SOCIETY NEWS.

[Any items of interest suitable for this department, from Sedalia or neighboring places, are respectfully solicited. We want a viracious, active and cheerful lady correspondent in all the neighboring towns tributary to Sedalia. Address all such communications to Rosa Pearle, society reporter Bazaar office, Sedalia, Mo.]

Society people are beginning to return to their homes and the incoming trains are fruitful of big Saratogas and their comrades composed of satchels, etc. Many old dresses will be brought home, a few more pounds of flesh, perhaps; and mighty light purses. "Only this and nothing more," and yet the days and months and years go by and life is full of possibilities which will never be grasped, and "Out under the stars" Somewhere a grave waits for all."

SEDALIA.

—Miss Rosa Moss is visiting relatives in this city.

—Mrs. D. W. Blair, is the guest of relatives in this city.

—Miss Mary Whitehead was the guest of friends in Clinton last week.

—Mrs. Townsend, of Jefferson City, is the guest of friends in this city.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Johns are the guests of friends in Hudson, Kas.

—Mrs. Mittie Weiler, of this city, visited friends in Knob Noster last week.

—Mrs. T. C. Lindsay, of Moberly, is the guest of Mrs. Will Mellor, of this city.

—Mrs. Dora Pattison returned from a visit with friends at Higginsville last week.

—Miss Anna Messerly returned from a visit with relatives at California last Thursday.

—Misses May and Julia Cobine will return from a visit with friends at Lincoln to-morrow.

—Mrs. J. M. Clute and Mrs. Cummings returned from a visit with friends in Ohio last week.

—Mrs. C. A. Pratt and daughter, Noni, of Jefferson City, is the guest of Mrs. Ira Hindsdale.

—Miss Sarah Schwab, of Windsor, was the guest of friends in this city last Wednesday.

—Mrs. Charles E. Miller, of Nevada, attended the Prohibition convention in this city last week.

—Miss Lila Hampden of this city took the first premium on crayon work at the Brownsville fair.

—Mrs. John Wrong, who was the guest of friends here, left for her home in St. Louis Wednesday.

—Miss Lizzie O'Brien, who has been the guest of relatives here, left for her home in Boonville Friday.

—Miss Maud Morrison and Ida Miller, of this city, are visiting friends in Sedalia—Clinton Democrat.

—Mrs. Warren Galbreath, who has been a guest at Cape May during this summer, is expected home soon.

—Miss Lida Walker passed through this city Thursday en route from Kansas City to her home in St. Louis.

—Miss Clara Hayes will leave for Warsaw Monday where she will take charge of a school near that point.

—Miss Kate Faulhaber returned last week from a most pleasant visit with relatives at Jefferson City.

—Miss Bertha Hobrecht, who was the guest of friends here, returned to her home in California Monday.

—Mr. W. W. Herroll and daughter Miss Belle, also Mrs. Frank Craycroft, are guests at the McAllister Springs.

—Miss Eva Gentry has returned to Sweet Springs, where she spent the summer. She will probably remain a week.

—Mrs. J. H. Holdsworth and son, Fred, of Paris, Mo. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holdsworth, on Sixth street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Hardcastle and daughters, Misses Delia and Lillian, have room at the Merchants hotel in this city.

—Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, Mrs. J. Hagghey, of Paola, Kas., and Mr. and Mrs. Ross are spending a few days at McAllister Springs.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hye and Mr. Fred Guenther returned from a visit to "Buffalo Mills" and Versailles last Friday evening.

—It is said a prominent young lawyer of this city will wed a fair and cultured Broadway belle, some time during the autumn.

—Misses Maggie Cully, Mary Neet and Ida Mason left for Hughesville yesterday, where they will be the guest of friends for a few days.

—Miss Mary Leaming will leave this week for Concordia where she will take a position as teacher in the public schools at that point.

—Mrs. Flavius McClure, of this city, had a lovely display of jellies at the Brownsville fair and took the first premium, as she well deserved to do.

—Miss Hattie S. Robinson, of Warrensburg, who has been the guest of Miss Agnes Feeks for the past two weeks, left for home Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Weiler have returned from a visit with friends in Kansas and have taken their old rooms at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Inch.

—Miss Katie Givens, of Louisville, Ky., and Miss Ella Givens, of Calhoun, who have been the guests of friends here, left for the home of the latter Friday.

—A dainty little girl baby is an honored guest at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Shaw, on Broadway. She will answer to the name of "Ethel Marie."

—Miss Glass, an intelligent young lady, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mr. James Glass, for sometime, left for her home in Canada last Wednesday.

—Miss Azie Brady and a young lady friend stopped in this city for a visit last Thursday evening. They were en route from Kansas City to St. Louis.

—Misses Mabel Van Camp and Julia Castle will arrange a benefit to be given at the opera house September 1st. The best musical talent in the city will assist.

—Miss Della Inch, of Sedalia, who has been the guest of Miss Maggie Richardson, for the past two weeks, returned home Monday morning.—Warsaw Times.

—Mrs. A. V. Roper left yesterday for Glasgow, where she will take part in a reunion composed of her several sisters, one of these having recently arrived from Pittsburgh.

—Mrs. Perry Stuckey and children, of Chillicothe, Mo., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Debell, corner of Seventh and Engineer streets.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Botsford, of Cold Springs, Connecticut, will arrive in this city next Tuesday and be the guest of Mrs. Russell Jennings, on Fourth street.

—Rev. Beattie was expected home from his eastern trip last night. Mrs. Beattie will not return until September and will then bring her mother, Mrs. Smith, of Ohio, with her.

—Mrs. J. R. Barrett, Miss Anna Barrett and Miss Dietzel a companionable and intelligent young lady of San Francisco, returned from Sweet Springs Wednesday evening.

—Miss Gertrude Van Camp, of Sedalia, sister of the accomplished teacher of vocal music, Miss Mabel, came down last Saturday, and is visiting here this week.—Warsaw Times.

—Miss Anna Allen has returned from the east, where she took lessons in music under some of the most prominent teachers, and has rooms at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Johnson, on Broadway.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Magee will go to Cynthia, Kentucky about the middle of October, where the relatives of Mrs. Magee reside and where it is altogether probable they will locate permanently.

—Miss Julia Castle, who is at present teaching, with the aid of Miss Mabel Van Camp, a class in vocal music in Warsaw, will return to St. Louis in the fall where she will continue her musical studies.

—A surprise party was given at the residence of Miss Beuna Keitley on Lamine street last Friday evening. A large number of guests were present, an elegant supper partaken of, and dancing indulged in.

—Miss Nellie Ingram will leave here about the 20th of September for New York and from that point accompany her cousin, Miss Grimshaw to Leeds, England. Miss Nellie will not return before next spring.

—Mrs. L. D. Palmer, corner of Broadway and Engineer streets, gave a pleasant party to a large number of young friends yesterday afternoon. Light refreshments of cake, fruits and a general good time was had.

—Miss Lena Gallie has returned from the Cincinnati College of Music. Miss Gallie recently visited a friend in Lexington, Kentucky, and sang at a concert in that city. Many praises were lavished upon her magnificent contralto voice.

—Mrs. E. Kent and daughter Miss Lydia Kent, who have been summering at points in Indiana, were last heard from at Terre Haute, where they were the guests of Mrs. Kent's eldest daughter, Mrs. Seiler. They do not expect to return before the 1st of September.

—The Jaynes party including Dr. John Trader and daughter Miss Hattie Belle, will return from their northern trip next Wednesday. Col. Jaynes is said to sleep well and has enjoyed the fishing and other pleasurable features of the journey very much.

—The society young men of this city will give a dancing party at Seicher's park, next Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Rosalie Shields, of Independence, who is the guest of Miss Isabel Daniel, Miss Lillian in Machette, of Boonville, and Miss Garrett, who is the guest of Mrs. Van Dyne, on Broadway.

—Miss Mary Mense, who with a party of St. Louis friends has been sojourning at Sweet Springs, expects to reach this city to-morrow or Tuesday, where she will spend two weeks with her sister Mrs. P. G. Stafford. Miss Mary is intelligent, and cultured and the Bazaar wishes her a pleasant visit.

—A large entertainment was given at the residence of Mr. T. E. Porter at Beaman last Thursday evening. Some fine music was rendered during the evening by Prof. Gregg and wife of this city. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time generally enjoyed. A number of guests were present from Sedalia.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hardcastle, who are housekeeping on Lamine street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, entertained a pleasant company last Thursday evening in honor of their nieces, Misses Mary Neet and Mary Leaming. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, music was rendered, and altogether the affair was a most enjoyable one.

—An exceedingly pleasant party was given last Monday evening at the residence of Miss Fannie Owens, in honor of her cousin, Louis Gettys, of St. Louis. Refreshments were served and the time rapidly whiled away. The guests were Misses Katie and Hattie McClellan, Sylvia Sheldon, Tillie Knopff, Lillie Shanks, Dovie and Bertie Ruby and Messrs. John and Charlie Moore, Charles White, Lon Heath, Shipman, Maddus, Willett Merrifield and others.

TEA.

Mrs. John Walmsey entertained a few friends, in honor of Grandma Miller, at a pleasant tea last Wednesday evening, at her home. The floral decorations were very handsome, and the affair was much enjoyed. Among the guests were Mrs. Judge Richardson, Grandma Kullmer, M. Marvin, T. K. Potter, R. Ritter and others.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A pleasant birthday party was given yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Palmer, corner of Broadway and Engineer streets, in honor of their little five-year-old daughter. Among the children present were Mary and Alice Russell, Mary Rickman, Belle Willis, Stella and Nellie Smith, Mary and Florence West, Gail Hamilton, Davie Harris and others. A number of costly presents were received.

CLASS ENTERTAINMENT.

Mrs. George Lord, corner of Broadway and New York avenue, entertained the class which she teaches in the Montgomery street Methodist Sunday school last Tuesday evening, at her home. The house was very tastefully and prettily decorated, refreshments of cake and cream were served, and a most enjoyable time was the result. Among the guests were Mrs. Matthews, Miss Sarah Matthews, A. G. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Slager, Mr. and Mrs. McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Stoneman, Mr. and Mrs. Weyman, Rev. and Mrs. Miller, Misses Ashworth and Bucker, Mrs. Sublett, Messrs. Andrews and Anderson.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you. Sold by Bard & Miller.

BOONVILLE BREEZES.

A Large Number of Distinguished Gentlemen Attending Circuit Court.

Two Weddings Announced to Take Place in the Near Future.

The Vine Clad City to Have a Grand Democratic Rally.

Notes and Personals About Town by the Bazaar's Special Correspondent.

Boonville, August 23.—[Correspondence.] The session of circuit court this week has drawn a large number of distinguished persons to our town. Mike McGrath, the genial Irishman, secretary of the state, has been here as one of the defendants in the state printing case. D. H. McIntyre, who failed to get there for attorney general a second term, represents the state in the same case. J. R. Edwards, the jovial, big-hearted editor-lawyer, of Jefferson City, A. J. Spurlock, whom Judge Edwards defeated for circuit judge, Col. W. W. S. Saddy, of the Queen City, Col. R. H. Mosser, Frank Walker, the talented young prosecuting attorney of Morgan county, and others are on hand.

Various railroad cases were continued. Steve Stephens secured a verdict of $37.50 in his suit against the M. P. R. R. Co. The Buncheon railroad cases for unjust freight discrimination were sent to Morgan county on change of venue.

HASE.

—Sam Meredith was in town on a visit this week.

—There will be a big picnic at Clifton City on the 30th.

—Miss Addie Whitlow has returned from Edorado Springs.

—Dick Morris, one of Buncheon's lively young merchants, is in town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Edwards will return to Holden Monday morning.

—Miss Agnes Lester, of Kansas City, is the guest of Miss Cora Kinney.

—Miss Fannie Thompson is visiting relatives and friends in Vernon county.

—Miss Sallie Stephens, a pretty little lassie, of Buncheon, is the guest of friends in this city.

—Frank Reinhart, one of the cleverest drummers on the road, has been in town this week.

—Miss Laura Buckner, of Columbia, is visiting the family of Joe Combs, near Boonville.

—A new depot is to be built in Buncheon in a short time to take the place of the one destroyed by fire.

—There was an examination of teachers in this city, this week. About a dozen were given certificates to teach.

—Mr. T. L. Tinsley, of Howard county, and Miss Bertha Dobyns, of Columbia, will be married next Thursday, August 28th.

—T. F. McDearmon, who was nominated for judge of the St. Louis court of appeals, is a cousin of T. H. B. McDearmon, of this city.

—Capt. Henry McPherson's new boat, Carrier, will reach Boonville from Louisville next Monday. It will take the place of the Martha Stephens.

—The marriage is announced of Miss Effie Adams, of Boonville, and Mr. Sam Johnson, of St. Charles. The date set is the 30th of September.

—Mr. J. W. Draffen, who experienced a stroke of paralysis, or something of that nature, last Tuesday, is still unwell, though somewhat improved.

—The work of repairing and refitting Thespian Hall, so often spoken of in the press of this city, will be commenced next week. This is authoritative.

—There was a very pleasant lawn party given at the residence of Mrs. John L. O'Bryan, in this city, Wednesday night, in honor of Miss Ruth Johnston, who has been visiting here.

—Capt. Less Smith's announcement as an independent candidate for the office of sheriff of this county appears in the papers this week. It is said that Mr. James Eubanks will be an independent candidate for collector.

—Charlie Swap went to the circus last Monday and left his umbrella on one of the seats. On returning to hunt for it he found it gone. Yesterday morning he received the missing umbrella by express from Versailles. Did any one ever hear the equal of this for an umbrella's story?

—Boonville democrats will have the grandest meeting of the campaign in this city on the 9th of September. Viles, of Wisconsin, Randolph Tucker, of Virginia, Daniel Manning, of New York, and others, are expected to be present and address the assembled citizens.

—The Supreme Grand Lodge of the Wise Men of the United States of America is in session here this week. This is an organization composed entirely of negroes, and their doings have been kept secret. Last night the session closed with a procession through our principal streets, and a ball.

—The public school commences its next session on Monday, September 8th. Prof. G. W. Smith, a handsome and talented gentleman, is the new principal, while H. W. Sheeking is his first assistant. Both these gentlemen are from Cape Girardeau, and this is their first term in Central Missouri. They come very highly recommended, and will doubtless give Boonville a better school than we have had for some time past.

—The newspaper men took in the circus in good shape last Monday. McQuilly, the religious editor of the Rochester Commercial, trotted around with a big cut under his arm, looking for the boss. Houch, of the Fayette Independent, made a fruitless search for the dude. Ravenel flitted in and out of the tents, but finally sat down to gaze intently at the female equestrians. Haller only went to